

Nearly 100 Show Up in Cleveland for First-Ever Jr All-American Camp OPEN RUN!

ATLANTA - Many of Ohio's best young talent in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 (even '18 and '17!!) came out to Garfield Heights High School in Cleveland on Saturday Oct. 31 to show reps from Jr All-American Camp, jrScout and others the game they have! Players arrived early and were eager to get started as they changed into their official "Cavs red-and-gold" Jr All-American Camp Open Run jerseys. Players came from as far away as Lima and Cincinnati. The largest group of players came from Cleveland and Akron. Chris Dennis from King of The Court did an outstanding job marketing and promoting the event throughout the state in the days and weeks leading up to Saturday. His efforts along with coaches and staff who participated helped make the first Jr All-American Camp a unanimous roaring success! Tyler Uliss, 8th-grader from Lima and a member of Ohio Basketball Club (OBC), put on a show. He clearly demonstrated why he's considered one of the best players in the nation in the class of 2014. Other 2014s that stood out were Tyler Herron, a 6'7 center from Cleveland; 6'6 Victor Dorsey of Akron; 5'4 TJ Steele of Shaker Heights; 6'3 Marsalis Hamilton from Berea and 6'3 Adam Gigax from Mason. There were many other 8th-graders who caught the eye of scouts in attendance.

Among the 7th-graders who impressed were: Christian Oakley (Cleveland); Kipper Nichols from Orange; Andrew Francesconi of Tallmadge; Reggie Jones from Twinsburg; Brian Parker Jr; Kyle Stergis; Asante Patterson from Huber Heights; Elijah Pughsley of Lima and Jaylin McDonald to name a few. There were several others.

Some of the many sixth-graders who stood out included: Larnell Nealy; Cole Heilman; Mitch Peterson; Demontay Liles; Tre Cobbs; Xavier Simpson; Marcus Dempsey; Nick Ward; Sean Flannery; Brandon Peters; and Teddy Hughes.

Fifth-graders played up with the 6th-graders. As did the one 4th-grader Le Arsba Edrington and the amazing and fearless third-grader David Dial from Akron.

We would like to recognize all of the Cleveland Open Run participants for attending! Congratulations!!
